

Creative Campus Design Talk

A guest speaker series on topics relevant to design, creativity, and building science

Grab your lunch and learn something new, with our special guests:

Emma Cubitt

Invizij Architects – Principal

Emma is an award-winning Hamilton-based architect with an interest in housing, non-profits and sustainable design. She is an expert in the Passive House methodology and has a passion for detailing and materials. Emma works tirelessly to make better places to live, both for individuals and for her community.

Graham Cubitt

Indwell – Director of Projects & Development

Graham leads the project team at Indwell, a Hamilton-based Christian charity that develops affordable, supportive housing for people “seeking health, wellness, and belonging.” Using both adaptive reuse and new builds, many of their projects use Passive House to ensure their sustainability and economic wellbeing. Graeme is a proponent of good, accessible, and affordable design that creates a strong sense of belonging for all.
